

Board Education & Training Resources

United Way's President Peter Carpino is available to meet with non-profit leadership and board members to discuss sustainability. To schedule a meeting, please contact Fran DeSalvo at 585-242-6553 or fran.desalvo@uwrochester.org

Nixon Peabody's Nonprofit Board Seminar Series

Partner Mike Cooney and his colleague, Anita Pelletier, counsel to nonprofit and charitable boards across the U.S. and abroad, will share their perspectives on the legal and governance environment for board members in five informative and entertaining hour-long sessions:

June 17: Board and Committee Meetings

How to make the best use of volunteers' precious time

July 20: Charitable Solicitation

Maximizing opportunities for success while complying with the rules

August 18: Chief Executive Review and Compensation

Safeguarding your board and your chief executive

September 14: Managing Restricted Funds

Assuring compliance with donor covenants

October 19: Handling Internal Investigations

How the board balances the relevant interests and protects the organization.

Whether you work for a nonprofit organization or serve on a nonprofit board, these sessions will present an opportunity for effective board training. All sessions will be held at Nixon Peabody's newly renovated space at Clinton Square. A light breakfast will be served.

Gratis for clients of the firm, and those boards on which they serve.
$40 for any organization; $10 for any individual.
